

R. A. Hall returned Tuesday evening from Fargo where he accompanied his eleven year old son, Hugh, who won a week's free tuition at the Agricultural college through being a successful participant in the corn contest from Foster county. Mr. Hall states that the boy is having the time of his life seeing the many valuable and instructive things at the A. C. Some sixty boys from all parts of the state took part in the state contest.