

H. P. Hanson left Wednesday night for Haley, N. Dak., where his two daughters have taken up claims on which they reside, and expects to help the girls get things in shape and plant trees to help make their places homelike. He states that they will have a new railroad through that part of the state which will traverse very close to their land and increase it's value very materially.