

JIM LAKE AND VICINITY

W. H. Bingham's machine started work Tuesday morning with Mrs. Wagner of Buchanan as cook and her sister as "cookee."

Miss Lucy Hammersteadt was down from Tucker's ranch and spent the week end with her father and brothers here. The family is expected to move down this week and remain.

Miss Jackman has been secured as instructor in Lyon school No. 1 and will begin the term Sept. 15.

J.L. Hoover is suffering greatly from sciatic rheumatism.

John Councilman returned Sunday from the hills where he has been harvesting his crop.

Mrs. Aug. Guenther visited at Pingree Monday.

A goodly number attended services at Esler school house on Sunday, although the weather was rather "moist."

Mrs. C. D. Wood and children visited Courtenay Thursday last.

Miss Nellie Gunther and a party of young friends from Kensal visited at the parental home last Thursday and spent a pleasant afternoon.