

JIM LAKE AND VICINITY

Frank Schlect and wife started on an overland trip to South Dakota last week expecting to spend the holidays with relatives there.

Mrs. Henry Thorman is enjoying a visit from her brother, Mr. Birck, of Stillwater, Minn.

Miss Paplinski is reported as suffering from blood poisoning. The young lady is being cared for in a Valley City hospital and friends hope for her speedy recovery.

Olaf Larson made a business trip to Kensal last Monday.

John Brady and M. McCurdy called at C. D. Wood's Sunday.

The infant daughter of A. Thayne was seriously scalded last Friday. As she sat playing on the kitchen floor, an older child fell over her with a pail of boiling water.

Ed. Krubeck and Wm. Kruger drove to Kensal Monday.

John Bouji spent Sunday at Aug. Paplinski's home.

The apron and necktie social at Esler school house last Friday evening was a complete success both socially and financially. The program was well rendered and the neckties sold well, netting about $22. After the program those who enjoy "tripping the light fantastic" remained until the "wee sma" hours and went home in the morning.

Mrs. Matt Bowers is spending the week with her sister, Mrs. Koves.

Mrs. Florence McCurdy is spending some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Brady.

Miss Schlect came out from Kensal last week and visited her brother, Frank, and wife a few days before their departure for South Dakota.