

KENSAL AND VICINITY

Miss Blanche Smith was surprised by a number of her friends that drove out to the home of her parents seven miles northeast of town last Thursday evening. They all seemed to have a good time to hear them tell about it.

A brother of Mr. Christopher-son spent the holidays at his home.

Mr. and Mrs. Seidlinger of Wimbledon spent New Year's day at the J. J. Brown home.

Anton Feckler, accompanied by Richard and Max Feckler, spent Monday at Wimbledon.

Mrs. J. Cysewski and children spent Xmas at the Gaffney home at Pingree, returning Friday.

Miss Lena Westerlund left Saturday morning for Bordulac to visit a few days with her parents.

Miss Anna O'Neil is sick with appendicitis but is somewhat better at this writing.

Miss Grace McBride came up from Wimbledon to attend the dance Tuesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Kern and son of Sentinel Butte are visiting at the Brewer home.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Knud Christianson Jan. 1st.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Grant Partlow Dec. 30.

Miss Sophia Frederickson spent the Xmas holidays at the home of her parents east of town.

A good time was enjoyed by all who attended the R. N. A. annual ball Friday night.

Frank Little and Ed. Hansen came up from Courtenay for the dance Friday evening.

A. Thompson Jr. returned from Cooperstown the latter part of last week.

Anton Haas and daughter, Anna, visited at the Clancy home Saturday evening, returning to Anamoose Sunday morning.

F. G. Thompson returned Saturday evening from a trip to the east.

Miss Myra Wilson and the two Tucker children, of Courtenay, visited at the Tucker ranch a few days last week.

Miss Lulu Jones left Saturday evening for Iowa to resume her studies at college.

Miss Marie Christianson left Monday evening for Valley City after spending the holidays at home.

Max Feckler leaves Wednesday evening for St. Paul to resume his studies at St. Thomas college.

The usual good time was enjoyed by all who attended the party given by Mrs. A. Hansen Monday evening.