

KENSAL

Miss Georgie Feckler returned Sunday evening from Jamestown where she spent two weeks with friends.

Miss Mae Seabright of Burtrum, Minn., was an arrival last week and will visit for some time at the Partlow and Collison homes.

Chas. Bangert and family, of Enderlin, Sundayed at the F. L. Nichols home.

Helmer Sundt of Williston visited Friday evening with his friend, Nick Nelson, and family.

Clinton Flora is spending a few days with his many friends at Bowdon.

Miss Clara Nelson left Monday morning for Glendive, Mont., after having spent some time with her brother, Nick, and family.

Miss Marie Christensen spent Sunday with the home folks, returning to Valley City Monday to resume her studies at the Normal.

The Misses Follansbee and Craig Sundayed in Carrington.

Frank Heaney went down to Wimbledon Saturday evening to attend the home talent play, and spend Sunday with friends.

Oscar Croonquist arrived home Monday morning from Milestone, Mont., where he has been employed out of that city as brakeman and during the performance of his duties as such, he fell from a car and sustained injuries to his foot, necessitating the use of crutches for some time. We hope he will soon be able to be about in his usual manner.

Miss Anna Brewer took in the play at Wimbledon Saturday evening and spent Sunday with the Misses McBride.

Miss Rose O'Neill returned from Valley City Friday evening after spending a couple weeks with the Misses Steele.

O. B. Christopherson went to Fargo the first of the week on matters of business.

Mrs. J. E. Jones left last Tuesday evening for Galesburg, Ill., to be with her daughter Lula who is attending Knox College and who is suffering with blood poisoning, caused by the cutting of a ring into the flesh.

Wm. Eaton and family, of Webb, Ia., are visiting with Mrs. Eaton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Wright.

John Ableidinger left last Wednesday evening for Rhome, N. D., after visiting for two weeks with his brothers and sister, Mrs. Thibado.

Miss Mary McGinnis of Jamestown, our popular county superintendent of schools, visited our public school last Thursday.

Mrs. T. R. Clemo went to Valley City last Saturday morning to spend the day with her mother, Mrs. Shaffer, returning in the evening.

Mrs. McKibbon of Maddock spent a few days with Mrs. C. E. Thayer last week, returning home Saturday morning.

Vern H. Smith spent a few days at the Fred Burleson home the first of the week.

Wm. Forster Sr. and sons Will and Fred and daughter, Mrs. Cordes, returned from Stillwater, Minn., Tuesday morning where they went to attend the funeral of Mrs. John Rohde, the daughter of Mr. Forster. Mrs. Forster will remain in Stillwater for several weeks.

A. Thompson and J. H. Roach attended a special joint meeting of the I. O. O. F. lodges of Binford, Dazey, Cooperstown and Rogers, at Rogers on Monday evening.

George Berg, Art Casey and Frank Heaney went down to Courtenay Tuesday evening to witness the basketball game between Courtenay and Wimbledon.

J. B. Clark left Tuesday evening for Minneapolis where he expects to remain for two weeks on business and visiting with relatives.