

The Courtenay Gazette.

P. E. SCHLEY, EDITOR AND PUBLISHER

Subscription price, $1.00 per annum. All advertisements will be considered payable and the paper continued until ordered to be stopped. As a rule the paper will not be continued more than one year without a settlement. When longer credit is granted by the publisher, the subscriber will be required to pay for the full time the paper is accepted.

PUBLISHED ON THURSDAY OF EACH WEEK

Entered as second class matter at the post office at Courtenay, North Dakota, under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

All copies for advertising, local readers and notices of any kind must be sent in not later than Wednesday evening if to be inserted in the succeeding issue of any week.

KENSAL

Henry Ejerkey of Valley City, bookkeeper for the Russell-Miller Milling Co., Sundayed here with our congenial jeweler, A. A. Rounce.

Miss Cecelia Whelan, assistant principal of the Courtenay schools spent Sunday here with her friend, Miss Georgia Feckler.

Miss Mae McBride of Wimbeldon, who had spent several days at the Murphy home in Bortulac, was an arrival here Saturday and spent Sunday at the Brewer home.

Tom Dye was a passenger to Enderlin Sunday evening where he will visit for several days with friends.

Frank Heaney was a visitor in Wimbeldon Sunday evening between trains.

The Danish Brotherhood lodge held a basket social in the I. O. O. F. hall Saturday evening. After the sale of baskets a social dance was enjoyed by all present.

Will Forster Jr. entertained a number of his gentlemen friends at the farm on Sunday at dinner.

Dr. Cusick of Carrington was here the latter part of last week looking after business in his line.

The R. B. C. Sewing club met at the home of the Misses Gusslanders on Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. V. T. Ryan, who recently purchased the Kensal Cash store, have gone to house-keeping in the rooms over the store.

Miss Louise Gregor, teacher in the Jos. Nogosek district, spent Sunday with friends in Jamestown.

Rev. I. E. Asher, pastor of the M. E. church of Carrington, is assisting our local pastor, Rev. Hynes, with the special meetings this week.

Miss Nina Herbrandson has again resumed her work in the school room after a week's absence on account of illness.

S. C. Shockley and family have moved into their cottage on the east side of town.

Miss Georgia Feckler left Wednesday morning for Jamestown where she will spend a couple weeks with friends.

Rev. C. E. Vermilyae, district superintendent of the M. E. church, conducted services in the M. E. church here both Sunday morning and evening, and in the afternoon gave an interesting talk to the boys and girls of the Sunday school. Rev. Vermilyae was to have spent this Sunday with Rev. Auger of Grace City but owing to the latter's illness this visit was postponed.

On Monday evening a number of the young ladies participated in a linen shower given at the Geo. E. Nelson home in honor of Miss Laurine Johnson. The evening was pleasantly spent in various amusements and conversation after which an elegant lunch was served. Before parting for their homes, Miss Johnson was showered with many parcels containing linen, by the guests, who wished her much happiness.

M. C. Peterson of Jamestown, representative for the Yeoman lodge, was here the first of the week looking after business in that line.

Nick Bauer left Tuesday evening for Wahpeton where he will receive treatment in the hospital there for tuberculosis of the bone which has been bothering him for some time.

Among those from here who attended the lecture at Carrington on Monday given by H. W. Campbell, were Geo. E. Berg and Anton Peterson.

Miss Laurine Johnson was met here Tuesday evening by Fred Drawz of Edmunds, going to Jamestown the same evening where on Wednesday, at the M. E. parsonage, they were united in marriage by Rev. Morrison.

Harold Myers, from near McHenry, is spending a few days with his friend, Willie Nelson, west of town.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Hanson, who returned from Plevna, Mont., last week, have again taken up their residence on their farm west of town temporarily. They intend returning to Montana in the spring.

Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Christopherson returned from their visit to points in Minnesota the latter part of last week.

Miss Rheimers of Bortulac is assisting at the Dr. Longstreth home.

A new piano from the Stone Music House of Fargo has been installed in the Kensal public school, and, owing to the fact that several of the high school girls are able musicians, much enjoyment will be derived by the students in the way of having an accompanist for their singing and marching.

ASHLAND SCREENINGS

Chas. Reick is troubled with an abscess on his tongue.

There was a surprise party at the home of Chas. Schumacher Saturday evening. All report a pleasant time.

Rev. Lueker called at the home of Wm. Wiechmann Saturday.

Harry Schumacher has purchased another team. He says the winter is not quite over yet and he may need another before spring. He says there is nothing like being prepared for these long drives.

Geo. Tucker has finished putting up ice at Spiritwood lake and paid off his crew Friday.

James Kennedy and daughter, Mrs. Hackstock went to Jamestown last week.

Robert Stabenow, from Rose, was visiting friends and relatives in this vicinity last week.

Herman Scharf killed a hog that weighed over 600 pounds. It took four strong men to handle it.

Miss Carrie Kracht went to Courtenay last Wednesday and will spend a few weeks at the home of Theodore Nelson.

Wm. Sperner was helping Bischoff Bros. haul barley to Courtenay Monday.

Mrs. Wm. Wiechmann and Mrs. Hoy spent Sunday afternoon at the home of John Braasch Jr.

Herman Kennedy has been kept busy these last few days showing the boys some ski stunts. He uses a long pole as a propeller and incidentally as a distress signal.

Adolph Stuff entertained a number of friends Tuesday evening.

Ray Lochow is spending this week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lochow.

Paul Kokett and Oscar Reick called at the home of Fred Sperner Sunday afternoon. Paul, who is a great musician, gave them a few solos on the cornet. All the cats and dogs returned again Monday.

There will be services in the German Lutheran church Sunday, Feb. 26.

"The Owl."

Horse Same as Man.

"One of man's best friends is the horse."

"Yes," responded the man with the race track habit. "But did you ever notice what a terrible faculty your best friends have of disappointing you in an emergency?"—Exchange.