

gian Lutherans, of which he was an active member throughout his life.

KENSAL

Mrs. J. C. Wold of Jamestown arrived last Friday evening to be with her mother, Mrs. Sam Atchison, who is very ill at the Walker home.

Geo. H. Piercy of Pingree was in town last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hanson were shopping in Carrington Monday.

Miss Mable Fredrickson Sundayed with Miss Blanche Smith at Courtenay.

Chas. Hayes of Courtenay spent Sunday with friends here.

Hans Horgen of Lidgerwood spent a few days here the latter part of last week.

Mrs. Fred Drawz of Edmunds Sundayed at the Geo. Nelson home.

Joe LaQua returned from Canada Sunday morning and is busy with his spring contracting work.

Miss Anna Brewer attended the dance at Courtenay, Monday evening, and reports a good time.

Anton Feckler transacted business in Wimbledon last Friday.

The Misses Georgia Feckler and Alma Johnson visited friends in Wimbledon between trains last Saturday evening.

Arnold Radke left the first of the week for Swift Current, Sask., where he will visit with his sister, Mrs. Pasch.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom DeHarven arrived last week from Minneapolis and are living on one of the T. B. Fitzgerald farms north of town.

The F. B. Webber and Jack Morrissey families of Courtenay attended mass here Sunday.

Prof. Iver Grindstein of McHenry visited with Prof. Hanson a few days the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Thayer went to Carrington Tuesday morning to do some shopping.

F. T. Kuhry left Wednesday with his car of household goods, stock and machinery for Chinook, Canada, where he will farm.

Mrs. Nick Nelson left Wednesday morning for Oberon to visit with relatives.

Mrs. M. T. Dovey and children of Valley City arrived Wednesday morning to be at the bedside of Mrs. Atchison.

Dr. Longstreth reports the birth of a 14-pound daughter to Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Romol-fanger.

Mrs. E. M. Golden and children left the latter part of last week for Beach where they will join Mr. Golden and make their home.

Miss Alma Johnson returned to Fargo Wednesday evening after a week's visit here.

Miss Georgia Feckler was a passenger to Wimbledon Wednesday evening.

The Ladies Aid of the M. E. church realized $28 at their Easter supper Monday evening.

The basket social and dance given by the band boys Tuesday evening was well attended, the boys taking in $58. Amidon's orchestra of five pieces furnished excellent music, which was enjoyed by all.

Residence and Livery Property For Sale

Have for sale my livery barn with horses, harness and buggies; also my residence property. Will sell either separately or together. Cheap, if taken soon. Terms: Half cash, balance on easy terms on well secured paper. Call, or write

A. C. Christensen,
23tf Courtenay, N. D.

Flax Seed for Sale

1200 bushels of nice clean flax seed grown on breaking at $2.75 per bushel.

R. Clendening & Co.,
26 9 Wimbledon, N. D.