

KENSAL

Several parties from Kensal and vicinity have registered at Minot during the past week for some of the Berthold land.

Mrs. C. E. Thayer took her little daughter Leone to Valley City Monday morning to consult doctors in regard to her health.

Francis E. Plummer, who has been employed at the First National bank during the summer, left for Williston Monday morning where he will fill the position of assistant cashier of the Citizens National.

Miss Julia Erickson arrived from Fertile, Minn., Wednesday evening and will be principal of the high school during the coming term.

Prof. Sven Hanson has been in town for a few days renewing old acquaintances. He left for Sanborn Tuesday morning where he has accepted the superintendency of the schools for the coming year.

Miss Rosa O'Neill went to Valley City Saturday evening for a visit with Miss Nellie at the Platon hospital. She returned Tuesday morning and reports Miss Nellie's condition as greatly improved.

Arthur Kumm is the new man at the First National bank, filling the position lately vacated by Mr. Plummer.

Miss Emma Cage arrived from Jamestown Saturday evening and will teach the Joe Nogosek school.

Miss Christine Christensen returned from Valley City Saturday evening.

Mrs. Chas. Van Vleck of Pecatonica, Ill., is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. N. Romelfauger.

Miss Allie M. Kidder, of Claremont, Minn., arrived Tuesday morning and will commence the fall term of school in the C. A. Parker district.

Miss Emma Carlson of Valley City spent Sunday at the Knud Christensen home.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Holmes is suffering from a very severe attack of bronchitis.

While driving horses up from the pasture Saturday afternoon, the little 9-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Norheim met an untimely end. While endeavoring to keep one of the colts from becoming entangled in a wire fence the colt reared and kicked the little boy, both hoofs striking him on the side and back of the head. He was taken to the house immediately and a doctor called but died about half an hour after the doctor's arrival, having never gained consciousness after being kicked. The funeral was held at the Norwegian church at half past two Tuesday afternoon and interment took place at the Kensal Cemetery.

John Norheim came home from Harlem, Mont., Monday evening to attend the funeral of his little brother, Halvor.

Mrs. Johnson, of Wimbledon, is acting as nurse at the O. E. Holmes residence during the illness of the baby.
