

TEACHERS' MEETING AT KENSAL

Following is the program of the meeting for teachers, patrons and school officers to be held in Kensal, December 15, beginning at 1 p. m. Supt. A. G. Crane of the Jamestown schools will lecture both afternoon and evening. All who are interested in good schools are cordially invited to be present.

Music
Reading, Demonstration Lesson with Class Clara Mauritson
Advanced Reading Edith Hughes

Discussion
How to Study Hazel Orcutt
Music in the School, Rural and Graded Nina Herbrandson
Primary Geography Nellie DeLonge

Suggestions for Opening Exercises Alice Arndt
Seat Work Ida Milne
Primary Arithmetic Ruth Hughes

Visit to Manual Training and Domestic Science Department conducted by Principal Julia Erickson

Lecture, Supt. A. G. Crane of the Jamestown schools

EVENING PROGRAM
8 o'clock

Music
Lecture Supt. A. G. Crane
Mary E. McGinnis,
County Superintendent.

KENSAL

Mrs. P. M. Hanson was shopping in Courtenay last Wednesday.

T. B. Fitzgerald and W. G. Tubbs returned to Minneapolis last week after spending the Fall here looking after their business interests.

A. A. Rounce returned the latter part of last week from his visit with relatives in Minnesota.

Mr. and Mrs. Chance, of Oberon, arrived last Wednesday evening and spent several days at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Nick Nelson. Miss Anna Chance, who has been visiting here for some time, returned home with them Monday morning.

Miss Nina Herbrandson left Thursday morning for Flora to spend her Thanksgiving holidays with friends, returning Monday evening. Miss Louise Hjorth substituted for Miss Herbrandson Monday.

Miss Anna Brewer was a visitor in Carrington last Wednesday, taking in the Old Time dance held there that evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Drawz, of Edmunds, spent Thanksgiving at the Geo. E. Nelson home.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. McKenzie and son, Herman, of Jamestown, were guests at the J. L. Hover home on Thursday last.

Miss Cecile Rosbrook was an over Sunday visitor at Enderlin, returning home the same evening.

Miss Grace McBride, of Wimbledon, and her friend, Miss Low, took in the Firemen's Ball here Thursday evening.

Fred W. Leete, assistant cashier of the First State Bank of Dawson, arrived home Wednesday evening to spend Thanksgiving with the home folks and to attend the Firemen's Ball.

O. M. Wilkinson and family spent Thanksgiving in Valley City at the home of Mrs. Wilkinson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Booth.

Miss Christine Christensen is assisting O. E. Holmes in the drug store.

Miss Nettie Hanson and John Olson left Sunday evening for

New York where they will sail for Denmark.

Miss Ida North accompanied by Courtenay Sunday evening her friend, Miss Blanche Smith, who had spent the day here with friends.

Miss Myrtle Linderman returned Sunday from Minot where she spent the Thanksgiving holidays with friends.

Mrs. Umlaugh and son, Carl, of Fergus Falls, Minn., are visiting at the Gus Guenther home. Mrs. Guenther is a daughter of Mrs. Umlauf.

Mrs. H. P. Hanson returned from Valley City Sunday evening feeling much improved in health.

John Harris and family have moved into the E. C. McKinnon home.

F. W. Skroch and family have moved to Crookston, Minn., and have retired from farm life. P. W. Skroch will live on the old farm home and attend to his father's interests here.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Grey, of Tower City, were guests at the E. H. Robinson home Sunday. Mrs. Grey is a sister of Mr. Robinson.

Mrs. J. E. Jones is spending several days with relatives in Jamestown.

Mrs. F. C. Albaugh and children arrived Friday evening and spent several days at the A. E. Albaugh home.

E. H. Robinson enjoyed a visit from his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Robinson, of Courtenay, on Sunday.

Miss Christine Follansbee spent her Thanksgiving vacation at Jamestown at the home of her sister, Mrs. Paul D. Gilger.

Miss Blanche Richart was a Jamestown visitor Saturday.

Thanksgiving services were held in the M. E. church Sunday evening at 7:30 and the church was well filled for this special service.

John Kline assisted in the Kensal Cash store last week. Miss Anna Brewer is filling that position this week until the services of a regular clerk can be secured.

E. H. Robinson and family are moving into the C. A. D. Kolb residence.

Saturday evening at about ten o'clock the fire alarm was turned in, a blaze being discovered in the warehouse in the rear of the E. W. Stroh & Co.'s store. The department was soon on the scene and the fire extinguished. Owing to the headway made by the fire before discovery, it was at first thought it could not be controlled. Kensal owes much to the efficiency of their fire department.

W. F. Spreen and family have moved into the H. N. Tucker cottage on the south side of the track.

The marriage of Miss Ellen Partlow and Edward Putnam was solemnized at Jamestown on Saturday last. Miss Ellen is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Partlow, of this city. Mr. and Mrs. Putnam will make their home in Kensal. Hearty congratulations are extended to this happy couple.

Oscar Croonquist and his friend left Monday afternoon for Valley City, from where they will leave for California to spend the winter.

A new operator has been added to the force here in the person of Mr. Jones, who arrived Friday evening, succeeding Mr. Parent who left for British Columbia a short time ago.