

KENSAL

A number of young people from Bordulac and Courtenay attended the Firemen's Ball here Thursday evening.

The Misses Miller and Rolfe of Fessenden came down Thursday morning to visit with Miss Grace Clancy and to attend the dance that evening. Miss Miller returned to her home Friday morning, and Miss Rolfe the following Monday evening.

In last week's items it was reported that Gordon Ableidinger was suffering with a severe attack of tonsilitis. It has since developed that it is a case of diphtheria and the home has been quarantined; also the Teofil Morozek home, a young son suffering with the disease.

Mike O'Neill and the Misses Annie and Nellie were passengers to Valley City Tuesday evening. Miss Annie will consult physicians in regard to her health which has not been of the best of late.

Daniel Clancy Jr. is enjoying a visit from his friend, Mr. Rolfe, of Fessenden.

Miss Mary Portz, who has been teaching in the Joe Nogosek school for one week, having succeeded Miss Cage, has accepted a position in the city schools of Jamestown and left Sunday evening to assume her work there Monday morning.

Mrs. Lars Holmes is enjoying a visit from her sister, Miss Hilda Stahl, of Seattle, Wash.

On Wednesday, Dec. 29th, at Jamestown, occurred the marriage of Miss Louise Guslander, of this city, and W. F. Ladwig, of Mercer. Miss Louise is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Guslander, of this city, and is one of Kensal's most popular young ladies, having been born and raised in this vicinity. During the past few years Miss Guslander has been engaged in teaching school in the Kensal vicinity and at Mercer, where she formed the acquaintance of Mr. Ladwig, who is a young man of good repute and holds a lucrative position with the First State Bank of Mercer as assistant cashier. Mr. and Mrs. Ladwig will begin housekeeping at once in Mercer where the groom had the bungalow in readiness for his bride. To the young couple we extend the well wishes of the host of friends of the bride.

On Thursday evening the Kensal firemen gave their Fourth Annual Ball in the I. O. O. F. hall. The evening was an ideal one, affording everybody an opportunity to come to Kensal and make this event a success, Wimbledon, Courtenay and Bordulac being well represented. The Firemen spared themselves nothing in making this occasion a success, everyone in attendance being highly pleased with the cordiality extended to them by our efficient department. An elegant supper was served at the Commercial Hotel which everyone heartily enjoyed. Son's five piece orchestra of Carrington furnished the music. $60.35 was cleared by the Firemen.
