

For Road Overseers—

Dist. No. 1—
John Stachlowski	98
Dist. No. 2—
E. E. Beach	99
Dist. No. 3—
David Inches	99
Dist. No. 4—
Wm. Mix	99

KENSAL

Mrs. J. E. Jones and daughter, Lula, arrived home last Tuesday evening from Galesbury, Ill., where Miss Lula has been attending Knox College but was compelled to give up her studies on account of her poor health.

Mrs. R. F. Chase is enjoying a visit from her mother, Mrs. Hester Sawyer, who arrived last Tuesday evening from Nebraska.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward McKinnon returned from their California visit last Wednesday morning.

Mrs. John Harris returned home last Tuesday evening from Wisconsin where she spent the winter with relatives.

Messrs. Farrar, Nichols, Berg and Christopherson attended a session of the Masonic lodge at Wimbledon last Wednesday evening.

George Drew was an arrival in town last Thursday, having come down from Alberta the first of the week, visiting with relatives at Carrington enroute to our city.

Mrs. L. J. Faehnrich left last Saturday morning for Wyndmere where she is attending to business matters.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Thompson and Miss Jeanette Carmody attended the Conductors' Ball at Enderlin last Friday evening.

Operator Krall was sent to Bowbells last Thursday morning, Mr. Chadwick succeeding him on the night trick.

Miss Georgia Feckler left last Thursday evening for Wimbledon where she was joined by Mrs. Hoy who accompanied her to Rochester to consult specialists in regard to her health.

Will Clark returned Sunday morning from Minneapolis where he was employed during the winter.

E. Peterson of Courtenay transacted business in town Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Skroch left for Geneseo, N. D., Monday evening for a visit with Mrs. Skroch's parents.

Miss Maude Lawrence returned last week from Hope where she spent the past month with her aunt.

E. L. Tyler, state bank examiner, was in town on business Tuesday.

A number of the ladies of the Royal Neighbors lodge pleasantly surprised Mrs. Cordelia House at her home last Thursday evening. The evening was spent in conversation and at midnight lunch was served. Mrs. House was presented with a beautiful linen lunch cloth from the Neighbors of Sunrise Camp. Mrs. House leaves in two weeks for Seven Person's, Alta., to make her residence upon her claim near there.

A number of the Kensal young folks took in the basketball game at Courtenay between Courtenay and Minot last Friday evening.

Mrs. J. B. Lonski and little daughters arrived from Jamestown Tuesday and will make their home in Kensal, Mr. Lonski being interested in the Kensal Imp. Co.

Mrs. C. J. Croonquist visited at Wimbledon between trains Monday evening.

Will Forester Jr. is giving his friends rides in his new Krit car for which he is agent.

Albert Emery is confined to his bed with inflammatory rheumatism.

Dr. Longstreth reports births at the following homes: To Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Walrath, Friday, a daughter; to Mr. and Mrs. Emil Braasch, Saturday, a son.

The Misses Partlow entertained a number of their friends at a party Thursday evening in honor of their cousin, Guy Collison.

ASHLAND SCREENINGS

A number of boys called at the home of Henry LaBrash last Sunday and the time was pleasantly spent in various forms of amusement such as boxing, wrestling and other pastimes in the manly art.

Oscar Rieck is very busy these days hauling feed and getting ready for spring's work.

Ingvold Wold returned from Canada the latter part of last week where he filed on a homestead. He will again work for Chas. Schumacher the coming summer.

John E Lange was moving his "castle" buildings Tuesday.

Harry Schumacher moved to the J. E. Clark farm last week which he has rented for the coming season and he has already begun to do harrowing and other light farm work.

Wm. Sperner hauled some seed from Wm. Wiechman Friday.

Bishoff Bros. were busy grinding feed last Wednesday.

Miss Grace Bradley had a vacation Tuesday on account of township election day.

Patrons of the telephone line may ask the company to use copper wire fearing that the barb wire now in use won't last much longer.

The "Owl" and it's deputy are not, as assumed, dead but are very busy digging rocks and trying to cultivate a small, half acre patch of potatoes for a future livelihood.

The township election of last Tuesday resulted in putting the following men in office: Tom Readel, supervisor for 3 years; E. F. Sperner, clerk; Ernest Werner, treasurer; Max Stritzel, assessor; Adolph Stuff, justice of the peace; P. J. Albright, constable; Joe Nitchey, poundmaster and Frank Bronk road overseer. The election on a whole was of a quiet nature and comparatively little effort was made to elect any certain favorite candidate.

Hansbrough's Thrilling Story

"The Second Amendment" which has just been written by ex-Senator Hansbrough of North Dakota, will be a literary sensation. It is a thrilling love story, full of romance and adventure, and the plot is closely interwoven with political conditions about the National capital. The Evening Times will run this story, exclusively, as a serial, beginning about April 15. Everybody in North Dakota will want to read it, and as a special inducement we will send the Evening Times until September 1, 1911, to any address, for $1. Subscribers in arrears may pay to date and take advantage of this offer. Address the Evening Times, Grand Forks, N. D.

Get a Monitor drill to sow your grain and sow it right. Sold at a painless price by L. O. Larson, agent.