

KENSAL

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Nichols spent last Friday in Carrington.

Messrs. Theo. M. Hjorth and James Nelson were in Carrington last Saturday.

Mrs. Hugh Smith of Courtenay was here last Saturday visiting with relatives.

Ben Jones came over from Jamestown in his auto last Saturday for an over Sunday visit with the home folks north of town.

Rev. A. D. Cumming is the new pastor of the Congregational church, having arrived the latter part of last week from Buchanan.

Miss Hazel Roach spent a few days last week with friends in Bordulac.

Rev. Hynes has the lawn tennis equipment in place, and several games have already been played on the court. It is the intention of the Epworth League to organize a club with a yearly membership fee and all young people or anyone interested in this game are invited to join the club. See the secretary and treasurer, Agnes D. Thompson.

Frank Heaney was a passenger to Wimbledon Sunday evening.

Mrs. Arnold Radke left Monday evening for Keoma, Alta., where she will join Mr. Radke and at which place they will make their permanent home, Mr. Radke acting in the capacity of agent for a lumber company there.

Miss Nettie Lonski drove over from Fried Monday, being accompanied by her sister, Minnie, who left the same evening for her home in Gull Lake, Sask.

Mrs. Theo. M. Hjorth returned Monday evening from her two weeks visit with friends in Minnesota.

The ball game Sunday between the Kensal nine and the Blue Jays, on the Kensal diamond resulted in a victory for the latter, the score being 4 to 7.

Rollef Berg was up from Courtenay Tuesday.

Mrs. J. M. Henderson, of Brookson, Ind., and Mrs. Mary Alkirk of LaFayette, Ind., arrived last week and are visiting at the C. R. Sterrett home north of town.

Mrs. Dr. Plant and children of Jud, are visiting with Mrs. Plant's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sterrett.

Geo. E. Berg went to Goodrich Monday morning to look after his farming interests in that community, returning Tuesday evening.

Messrs. Tufford, Cysewski and Holmes autoed to Jamestown Monday, returning the same evening.