

KENSAL

Miss Kathryn Williams Sundayed with friends in Carrington.

The Misses Whelan and O'Laughlin, of Courtenay, were guests at the Feckler home on Sunday.

Miss Marie Christensen came up from Valley City Saturday evening for a couple of days visit, returning Monday evening.

Miss Clara Klefler arrived home from Valley City Friday evening. She is gaining rapidly since her recent operation and we hope to see her about soon enjoying her usual good health.

Miss Lyda Clancy entertained Miss Freda Clark, of Wisconsin, as an over Sunday guest. Miss Clark has been visiting in Fessenden, and left Monday morning for McHenry where she will visit a few days before returning to her home.

Roscoe Brown is acting as helper at the Soo station, Chas. Colison Jr. having resumed his studies in the high school Monday.

Louis Kumpf, of Aneta, transacted business in Kensal Saturday.

Mrs.—Chris Bredahl and Mrs. Sophus Fredrickson were shopping in Carrington Saturday.

Mrs. J. M. Watson, after spending three weeks here with her many friends, left Thursday evening for Jamestown where she will spend a week before going onto her home in Casselton.

Miss Stella Paplinski was a passenger to Valley City Monday where she will spend a day with her brother who is in the hospital there.

Mrs. L. H. Lloyd and Mrs. Edward McKinnon went down to Courtenay Monday evening, the former to have some dental work done, and the latter for a visit with her daughters, Mrs. Hugh Smith and Mrs. Wm. Jones.

A. J. Smith left Monday evening for his home in Minneapolis after spending a week in this vicinity looking after his many business interests.

Mrs. C. J. Croonquist returned home Monday evening after having spent several days at the E. B. Wolffe home in Valley City.

F. G. Kelly, the piano tuner from Minneapolis, was looking after business in his line here on Monday.

A. J. Thompson left Monday night for Hosmer, B. C., after spending the Fall here running the threshing engine on the Frank Glasner rig.

Miss Nettie Hanson was an arrival Monday evening from Jamestown.

The chicken pie supper given by the Ladies Aid society of the M. E. church Wednesday evening in the basement of the church was well patronized, even though the weather was unsettled and disagreeable. The ladies realized $50. The remodelling of the church building, which is nearing completion, is a decided improvement to the property. The large room in the basement will be used for class meetings, Boy Scouts meetings, and all socials for church purposes.

Miles Feero has moved his family into the Tom Savage residence.

The family of Chas. Walrath is quarantined for diphtheria, one of the small children being afflicted with the disease. The child's condition is not serious.