

KENSAL

The Misses Mable Fredrickson, Florence Fredrickson and Stella Guslander spent Sunday with Blanche Smith at Courtenay.

Miss Gina Horgen left Sunday morning for Poplar, Mont., to take up her residence on her claim in that vicinity.

Mrs. C. S. Shippy, of Hope, is visiting with her sister, Mrs. D. S. Greenen, having arrived Saturday evening.

Miss Anna Chance assisted in the Cash store several days last week.

Pete Hanson returned from Valley City Monday, feeling very much improved but yet very weak since his recent operations.

O. O. Franklin, employed as operator here for some time, left Monday evening for the east.

Miss Hazel Roach spent last week with Bordulac friends.

Miss Marie Jorgensen and Mrs. Albert Hanson left Tuesday morning for Jamestown where the former will consult doctors in regard to her health.

Rev. J. Chester, of Grace City, and Rev. H. W. Hynes, of this place, left Tuesday morning for Grand Forks to attend the M. E. Conference.

Miss Margaret Robertson, of Keister, Minn., is a guest at the O. B. Christopherson home since Saturday evening.

Miss Christine Follansbee left Friday evening for Jamestown and spent Saturday and Sunday with her sister, Mrs. P. D. Gilger.

Miss Mary Robinson, of Courtenay, visited with her brother on Friday and Saturday.

The Misses Blanche Walsh and Mary Dick, of Wimbledon, attended the Yeoman dance here Friday evening.

The dance Saturday evening at the Anton Bartosh home south of town was attended by a number of the young people from town.

Geo. E. Bouer, of Courtenay, transacted business here Tuesday.

R. B. Lowe and wife, of Pettibone are spending a few days here with relatives and friends.

Miss Anna Brewer to Wimbledon Tuesday evening to attend a dance there that evening.

Rev. Cumming is spending the week in Bordulac, having organized an orchestra there among the young people, and is instructing some of the new members preparatory to their first rehearsal.

A number of the ladies of the Sewing Club surprised Mrs. C. J. Croonquist Thursday afternoon by dropping in and spending the afternoon with her, the occasion being her birthday.

The Yeoman dance held last Friday evening was well attended and everyone enjoyed themselves thoroughly.

Mr. Christopherson has added another clerk to his already good force of assistants, in the person of Mr. Arnet who arrived from Jamestown the latter part of last week to assume his new duties.

Miss Christine Christensen went to Jamestown Wednesday morning to have a slight operation performed, having a growth in the nose removed which has been troubling her for some time.

Mr. Parent arrived from Enderlin Tuesday morning and will fill the vacancy as operator on the night trick, taking the place of O. O. Franklin.

Mrs. Kate House and little son arrived from Moorhead, Minn., Tuesday morning. Mrs. House will look after her farming interests while visiting here.