

KENSAL

Mrs. T. Moran of Winona, Minn., is visiting at the Geo. W. Leete and Dr. Longstreth homes.

A. J. Smith, of Minneapolis, was transacting business in town Monday.

Miss Lizzie Guslander of Carrington Sundayed at the L. W. Guslander home.

Miss Grace Hynes of Carrington was here Saturday looking after business matters.

Miss Nellie O'Neill returned from the Platou hospital at Valley City Sunday evening and is gradually gaining in strength after her severe siege of typhoid fever.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Allie Sloan on Oct. 1st, a 9½ pound son.

Miss Nellie Schlect arrived the latter part of last week from points in Iowa and South Dakota where she had been visiting with relatives, and will spend several weeks here with her sister and brothers.

Miss Geisen, of Wimbledon, was the guest of Miss Georgia Feckler last week.

Frank Schlect and wife arrived the latter part of last week, and will begin housekeeping at once on the Feckler farm, formerly occupied by Olaf Larson.

Miss Karen Hanson returned from Valley City the latter part of last week, and reports that her brother is recovering nicely from his recent operations.

Mrs. Cordelia house came down from Seven Persons, Alta., Tuesday morning to look after her farming interests.

Mr. Hunt arrived the first of the week to act in the capacity of bookkeeper at the First National bank.

Mrs. J. R. Smith went to Enderlin the latter part of last week to attend the wedding of her friend, Miss Johnson; from there she went to Oakes to visit with her daughter, Mrs. Ed. Johnson.

Dr. Longstreth has vacated the rooms over the First National bank and now has his office in the rooms over the Kensal Implement building. Glenn Farrar is having the rooms over the bank remodelled and will move his family into them as soon as they are ready.

Mrs. S. A. Thayer left Monday morning for Kilbourn, Wis., after spending several weeks at the C. E. Thayer home.

L. C. Lane attended the Telephone Association meeting at Bismarck last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Nogosek spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. Bert Deimert, of Eckelson.