

KENSAL

Mrs. John Cysewski spent the latter part of last week visiting with her parents at Pingree.

Miss Mildred Craig arrived Wednesday morning from Minneapolis and visited with friends until Saturday morning, going to McClusky where she is engaged as teacher for the coming term.

Mrs. John Frederickson entertained the Norwegian Ladies Aid last Wednesday, the occasion being also the anniversary of Mrs. Frederickson's fiftieth birthday. A large company of ladies were present.

Miss Christine Follansbee arrived from her home at Ernie, Iowa, Thursday evening.

H. N. Tucker, of Courtenay, was here on business Thursday and Friday.

Miss Alma Johnson left for Fargo Friday evening and will continue her studies at the Fargo High school.

Miss Anna Croonquist left on train 106 Friday evening for Northfield, Minn., where she will take up Normal work.

Frank Heaney returned Friday from his visit to Minnesota.

Miss Gladys Crosswaite has again assumed the duties of teacher in the Brewer school district.

Miss Anna Brewer left for Minneapolis Sunday evening to visit friends.

Masters James and Thomas Clancy went to Fargo Monday morning and will enter the Sacred Heart Academy for the coming year.

Miss Jeanette Carmody visited with Mr. and Mrs. T. X. Jones at Valley City Sunday.

Jas. Hage, of Beach, visited with D.C. Clancy and family the latter part of last week, returning to his home Monday morning.

School commenced Tuesday with the following teachers on duty: High school, Miss Julia Erickson; eighth grade, Miss Christine Follansbee; fifth, sixth and seventh, Miss Blanche Richart; fourth, Miss Nina Herbrandson; second and third, Miss Mauriston, and primary, Miss Cecila Rosenburg.

Miss Irene Myers, of Melville, is teaching in the Osmer Burleson school this year.

O. B. Christopherson left for Minneapolis Sunday evening on business and pleasure.

Miss Anna Olsen is teaching in the John Clark district this year.

Frank Schlect, of Seneca, S. D., is visiting with his brother, J. D., and sister, Miss Agnes Schlect.

Fred Roberts, of Keister, Minn., visited with Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Christopherson Friday and Saturday.

Mrs. Geo. Richmond, of Jamestown, is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Jones, north of town.

Miss Louisa Guslander is teacher in Kensal School Dist. No. 1 for the Drew school.

John Cress suffered a severe attack of appendicitis Monday evening and was taken to the St. Johns hospital at Fargo Tuesday morning by Mr. Brewer. The many friends of Mr. Cress hope for a speedy recovery.

Mrs. F. L. Thompson will return from her eastern visit Thursday morning.

Mr. Franklin is the new operator for the Soo Line.