

From latest reports we learn that Rev. J. W. Kingston had so far recovered from the recent operation that he was able to leave his bed on Tuesday, and, if all goes well, he will be able to leave the hospital at Rochester in a week or ten days. His affliction was of a very serious nature and it is remarkable to learn of his speedy recovery. His unusually strong physique undoubtedly greatly aided the efforts of the famous doctors to restore him to his health.