

---

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Kjelson took their son Ernest to Fargo where he will enter a hospital to undergo an operation for appendicitis. The little fellow, who is about thirteen years old, had a very slight attack and nothing much was thought about it until another attack made the necessity of an operation highly advisable and his parents decided to submit him under the doctors care at a Fargo hospital. No fears of eventual recovery are apprehended unless complications should arise.