

Peter Levanskofski returned Sunday morning from Rochester Minn., where his wife is confined at the Mayo hospital for the treatment of gall stones. She underwent an operation but is recovering very slowly and it be some time before she will be able to return home again.