

Harry Mowder has received an up-to-date spring wagon and is making good use of it. It is an easy riding wagon, the first of its kind in Courtenay, and well suited for hauling merchandise without subjecting it to the hard jolts of the common dray wagon equipped with ton springs. It is expected that other draymen will soon follow the example.