

Report comes from Kensal that the twelve-year old son of Frank Neva was accidentally shot by one of his companions while out riding. The bullet grazed the skull and inflicted a serious wound. He was taken to a hospital at Valley City and very little hopes are entertained for his recovery.