
1, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Neva, the i- parents of the Neva boys farm-of ing west of town, are contem-v- plating the erection of a fine e dwelling house at their old home w town in Wisconsin where they of expect to live the remainder of s- their life, free from the rush of e life in the west. They have ree- sided here for many years and o- have seen the ups and downs of e pioneer life and through it all 1- have amassed a goodly portion it of this world's goods and now t- intend to reap the fruits of their labor in retirement and ease.
