

NOGOSEK TOWNSHIP NOTES

(Too late for last week)

The auction sale of John Crawford's held on the 24th was well attended and Mr. Crawford was well pleased with the proceeds of the sale. He intends moving to Courtenay this week.

John Miller is now living on the farm owned by the Courtenay Mercantile Co., north of town.

Miss Mary Pierce came up from Wimbleton Saturday morning and spent Easter Sunday with her sister, Mrs. F. B. Webber returning Sunday evening.

Fred Hohenhouse moved his family to his father's place while he intends going to Montana to look the country over with a view of locating there.

John Atchison moved recently from the Jones farm to the old Kerr farm.

It is reported that W. J. Stath-
