

F. T. Pangburn arrived last Thursday from Sauk Center, Minn., with a car of household furniture which he had moved into the dwelling house recently vacated by W. F. Steinway and family. Mrs. Pangburn is expected to arrive soon and they will take up their future residence here. A young son accompanied Mr. Pangburn. In the vernacular of the country newspapers we welcome this estimable family in our "midst."