

John L. Rapp left Tuesday for Rochester, Minnesota to undergo an examination at the Mayo Bros. hospital. He has never fully recovered from his prolonged illness of last winter and concluded to seek the advice of the famous Mayo's as to the course of treatment to take to secure relief from his affliction.