

Chas. Reick arrived Monday with his wife from Valley City where she had been for a week at the Platon hospital having an operation for goitre performed. She had sufficiently recovered to enable her to make the trip to her home south of town.