

---

Elwood Robinson arrived here Thursday from Miles City, Mont. He resigned his position with a large dry goods and grocery firm in that city and has not as yet decided on a future location, though he has a number of good positions offered him in this state and may accept one near the Montana border. Mrs. Robinson and the baby remained with her parents in Dickinson until Mr. Robinson secures a permanent location.

---