

A. H. Saxerud returned last night from Valley City with Mrs. Saxerud who had been staying with their little boy at the Platon hospital. The little fellow is fast recovering from the operation of removing an abscess from his head and is expected to be able to return home in a week.