

---

The auction sale held Tuesday on the farm of August Schneider met with a fairly good success. The crowd was not large but made up in having good buyers who bought eagerly and were willing to pay good prices. Col. Kribbs did the crying stunt, for which he is universally known as belonging in the A1 class, and Paul E. Skjerseth looked after the financial end of the deal to the satisfaction of all concerned.

---