

---

Paul E. Skerseth returned Friday morning from a trip to European points extending over three months. He visited his home and parents and other relatives in Norway and also visited in Denmark, Sweden and Germany. He feels greatly refreshed from the sightseeing tour and has again taken up his duties as cashier of the First National bank of this place.

---