

---

Still Missing

Valley city, N. D., March 11—Frank B. Kellogg, who has returned from Cleveland, says that no trace of Ed. R. Stern, the farmer from that town who disappeared in Jamestown several weeks ago has yet been found.

John Flaherty of Cleveland, a member of the same secret order as Stern, has spent a week in Moorhead and Minneapolis looking for the lost man. It is said to have been discovered almost without a doubt that Stern was seen in Moorhead after cashing the large check here and his subsequent disappearance. Friends of the man also say that he was met in Minneapolis still later, but so far all the efforts of Mr. Flaherty have been fruitless.

---