

CYCLE PUBLISHED WEEKLY.

Mrs. H. B. Postlewaite returned from Minneapolis Tuesday morning. She states that her sister, Mrs. B. H. Stoddard, is getting along nicely from the effects of her recent operation for appendicitis and she is expected to be soon sufficiently recovered to permit her removal to the home of Mr. Stoddard's parents who reside on Irving avenue. Her many friends here rejoice over the favorable outlook of her ultimate complete recovery.