

---

August Swanson and his son John went to Minneapolis Friday where the latter passed a successful examination for service on the Soo railway. While there he underwent an operation for the removal of his tonsils which had been a great source of trouble to him, being of an abnormal growth.

---