

Robert Walker Sr. was taken to the St. Johns hospital at Fargo last Saturday for treatment of a severe case of intestinal derangement. He has been ailing for years, never fully recovering his full health, and fell an easy victim to the attack he had a couple of weeks ago. His friends hope no serious complications will develop and that he will entirely recover from his affliction.