

---

Mrs. Loui Wange and children came up from Ormond S. D. yesterday morning and they will remain here during the coming winter. Her husband became injured by an accident on a railroad and in consequence of the disability caused therefrom was excused from further actual residence on the homestead on which they had lived throughout the summer months until he had recovered from his injuries.

---