

Stone Thrown in Anger

May Cost Boy His Sight

Jamestown, N. D., May 21.—

While walking home from school yesterday afternoon, Cecil Wheeler, the 8-year-old son of J. F. Wheeler, was hit in the eye with a stone thrown by Walter Peterson, a boy about his own age, and it is believed he will lose the sight of his eye.

The Wheeler boy was walking with a playmate, who had been having trouble with young Peterson, and the stone was directed at the playmate, but missed its mark and hit the other boy fairly in the eye. Physicians say it will be some time before it can be determined just what the result of the accident will be.
