

---

Peter Whitbeck, formerly a resident in the northern section of this county, writes from Mount Hope, Kansas, that that country is experiencing a very dry spell of weather, scarcely any moisture having fallen since September last. He encloses the price of a year's subscription to the Gazette which indicates that the adverse conditions of the weather have not soured his usual good disposition.

---