

Wm. R. Whitney arrived last Thursday from Chicago where he has attended a veterinary college and taken a course in animal surgery. He will again take up his practice here and is now better than ever prepared to take care of his large practice.