

---

B. Wicks, cashier of the Soo station at this point, left Saturday for Elbow Lake, Minn., where he has accepted a position with the N. P. railroad as operator. He has been in the employ of the Soo at the local station for six months or more and was well liked for his quiet and unassuming manner and made many friends during his brief stay here.

---