

---

Willie Wiechman returned Thursday from Valley City where he had been confined to the Riverside hospital for nearly two weeks. Contrary to expectations, his recovery has been much more rapid than the nature of his operation, which was the second within a short space of time, would lead to expect. Just ten days from the time the operation was performed the doctors at the hospital informed him that they considered him well enough to return to the home of his parents.

---