

---

Mrs. Wm. Wiechman left for Valley City Saturday to visit her son, Willie, who is confined to the Riverside hospital awaiting recovery from a recent operation for appendicitis. Contrary to expectations he is recovering nicely and though his entire health may not be restored for some time from the serious nature of the operation no immediate fears of a relapse are entertained.

---