

---

A week ago last Sunday morning, Carl Wright, the 16-year-old son of Samuel Wright, started for Williston for the purpose of bringing to Courtenay a team of ponies belonging to Miss Arndt, his teacher. Carl rode the ponies back and returned home Monday evening, Oct. 6, about eight o'clock, having made the trip in eight days. He says he enjoyed it in spite of bad weather and a few inconveniences.

---