

Pleasantview Notes

A happy New Year to all.

The Free Methodists watched the old year out and the New Year in.

Rev. and Mrs. Shaver entertained friends New Year's eve and to say that they know how to entertain their friends is but to express it mildly.

Miss Pearl Bemis, who has been attending school in Jamestown, came home for the holidays.

Miss Westwood, teacher of No. 2 school in Eastman school district, spent Xmas and New Years in Carrington.

Amandus Peterson visited Courtenay on Friday.

Miss Bessie Ferman visited Miss Sadie Connells on Thursday.

On Thursday December 31st a number of our young people met at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Bemis at 7 o'clock p. m. Dinner was announced and the guests were escorted to the dining room where the table stood groaning under a load of good things to eat, all of which the guests did ample justice to and the writer felt like saying with the epicure fate can not harm me I have dined today. When Mr. and Mrs. Bemis undertake to entertain people they do it and don't you forget it.

Ole Anderson goes round wearing a superior smile. And so it's a girl is it Ole, well that's all right, we need 'em. But don't forget to come around with them cigars. You know we smoke.

Mac Turner is doing Chicago during the holidays and writes he thinks the windy city O. K.

Omitted Last Week.

Mac. Turner left on Tuesday with his little daughter for Chicago to see the sights. He intends visiting Paisley, Ontario, at the same time. We wish Mack a bon voyage and a good time.

Robert Bradford arrived from Milestone on Sunday to spend Christmas with his friends. Rob seems to have a sort of hankering for the starry flag. Come again Rob.

Oscar Kelson who has been visiting his mother in Wisconsin returned last Tuesday.

John Larson entertained friends at his residence on Friday evening.

John Hoggarth an old time resident of this neighborhood died at his residence on Saturday, Decemeer 19th, from heart failure. The family have the sympathy of all.

Miss May Comels left last week to visit friends in Minnesota.

Miss Elsie and Bessie Ferman visited Jamestown on Sunday.

Miss Agnes Nordeen visited at Ole Anderson's on Sunday.

Henry Grasser spent Wednesday at McHenry.

Adolph Kelson and Sam Hogan visited Cooperstown on Saturday.

A young man who has been working in this neighborhood but whose name we have forgotten, went to take the train to his old home in Wisconsin and when he come to buy his ticket he found to his horror that he had forgotten his pocketbook. So he went back after it. Here is ho when we meet you old fellow.
