

Pleasantview Notes.

Seeding is being rapidly completed in this vicinity and grain is flourishing.

Miss Pearl Bemis returned home for the holidays on the 4th of June.

Miss Mary Nordin returned home from Velva on June the 7th.

What makes the farmers of Pleasantview go around with a look on their face as if everything was coming their way? Why the rain of course. And was it not a dandy. We will now hear from the wet weather cranks.

John Larson reports a fine boy which arrived at his home some time ago. Congratulations John. You know the custom. We will smoke, John.

The Free Methodist church will be dedicated on Sunday June 19th.

J. W. Wilsie has got the telephone extended from Frank Kingsleys to his residence and he can now talk with Cooperstown or any old place.

Mrs. Wilsie is slowly improving from her injuries.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Sutton visited at Cooperstown on Tuesday.

Mr. Joseph Hoggarth has bought a half section two miles north of Thurlow's. He seems to think that North Dakota is all right.

There will be an ice cream social at the Bemis school house on Saturday, June 25th, for the benefit of Mount Lawn Childrens' Home, New York. Ice cream will be served from seven o'clock as long as you want it. Boys, come and spend a few dimes for a good cause.
