

George Wright received a letter from his son Charles one day this week in which he announced the arrival of a new girl at Will Wright's on the 7th inst. He also gave his experience in a hold-up in Tacoma which was not a very pleasant affair, and he lost several dollars but they left his watch.