

The wedding of Edward Clemens of Jamestown and Miss Louise Schmitt took place on Wednesday at the home of the bride's parents at Sykeston and they will be at home at 124 south Fourth avenue, Jamestown, in a short time. Mr. Clemens will be remembered by the people of Courtenay, having been employed by H. J. Murphy in the drug store for some time. He is a young man of excellent habits and the bride is a young lady who has been in the employ of Ben Orlady at Jamestown for some time and is very popular both with her employer and all her acquaintances.
