

FOSHOLDT-HAGGBERG

O. T. FOSHOLDT AND MISS MINNIE HAGGBERG WERE MARRIED AT COKATO, MINNESOTA, ON FRIDAY OF LAST WEEK.

O. T. Fosholdt and Miss Minnie Haggberg were married last Friday at Cokato, Minnesota, a town a few miles from the home of the bride. The ceremony was performed at ten o'clock in the morning and immediately afterwards the couple drove to the home of the bride where a company of friends had assembled and a wedding dinner was awaiting them. Shortly after dinner Mr. and Mrs. Fosholdt started for Minneapolis where they spent Saturday and reached Courtenay on Sunday evening, surprising their many friends here who did not know of the marriage.

Neither of these people need any introduction to the people of Courtenay as Mr. Fosholdt is among the pioneers in this community and has been connected with a general merchandise store almost ever since Courtenay was started. He is an enterprising and prosperous business man and has the respect and confidence of the people of the entire community. Miss Haggberg has been a resident of Courtenay for some time and her friends are only limited by her acquaintances.

The people of Courtenay join with the Gazette in extending congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Fosholdt.
