

George Marsolek arrived in town Wednesday morning with his bride. George went to Dudley, Illinois, some time ago and was married on July 20th to Miss Grace Zimmerly. The bride was not prepared to return with him at that time and George could not spare the time from his business and so he returned alone, much to the surprise of the people in town, as they rather surmised that he had gone to get married. But on Tuesday he went to Valley City and met her there and they arrived in Courtenay Wednesday morning and immediately went to keeping house in a neat little cottage in the southwest part of town. George is the leading photographer in the town and is doing a nice business.
