

way.

Sam Shockley and Miss Kittie Ferguson were married at Kensal on Wednesday afternoon and took the evening train for the east. Both of these young people are well and favorably known in Courtenay, having resided here at one time, and they have a host of friends who wish them a happy and prosperous married life. They will go to housekeeping in Kensal where the groom has a nice new home prepared.